

Bonus - Task 6

Name: _____

Date: _____

Australian Lingo

lingo, (noun): a special vocabulary of a particular group or individual

1. Read the following paragraph using the Australian lingo.

One arvo, my mate decided to have a barbie on a station. There was a problem though. The station had too many billabongs. Another bloke suggested having it in the bush instead. My mate thought that would be yakker, but agreed the bush was a better idea. They decided to wear their bossies, and bring chooks, biscuits, fairy floss, and lollies. The bloke reminded my mate to bring plenty of bickies in case they run out of tomato sauce. He would not want anyone to throw a dummyspit.

2. Go to the Bonus 5 link "Australian Lingo" and fill in the English meaning of the words.

One _____, my mate decided to have a _____ on a _____. There was a problem though. The _____ had too many _____.
Another _____ suggested having it in the _____ instead. My _____ thought that would be _____, but agreed the _____ was a better idea. They decided to wear their _____, and bring
_____, _____,
_____, and _____. The _____ reminded my _____ to bring plenty of _____ in case they run out of _____.
He would not want anyone to throw a _____.